REFLECTION: *What Kind Of Tracks?

It's impossible to live in this world without leaving something behind. The things we do and say are like footprints left on the sand of eternity. So what kind of "tracks" are we leaving? What will people remember about us when our time here is finished? Will they see that the kindness we performed made others' lives richer? Or will our lack of attention to relationships create downward spirals that others will be trying to reverse for generations to come? Since we are "a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes" (James 4:14, NIV), it's a good idea to consider exactly how our "mist" is spent. Let's consider the "tracks" we're making today—most of us realize we're leaving them – the question is, what kind are we leaving behind? ~Jennie Bishop

With the completion of ALPHA, we will be starting a study of Robert Foster's book on prayer. John Ortberg says "This book is a rare gift-informed by ancient wisdom, accessible to contemporary readers, and practical in the best sense of the word. For many readers (including me) it is both a guide to prayer and an answer to one."

Beginning Sunday, February 11th, at 6:30 pm, we will be meeting in the Resource Centre to discuss the incredible resource of prayer. A child care schedule will be established if there is interest from parents of young children. Please plan to attend.

JESUS IS MY VALENTINE

Children's Poem

Jesus is my Valentine:
I talk to Him each day.
He never, never leaves me;
And always listens when I pray.
Yes, He is my Valentine;
There is no love like His.
He is the heart of all that is;
For Him I breathe and live.
He's a Valentine that never lies;
Never hurts or breaks.
He always has forgiven me;
For all my past mistakes.
If you only knew my Valentine;
You would love Him too.
For His love is always perfect;
His love is always true.
So if your heart is longing;
For a love that never ends
For someone that is faithful'
You know you can depend.
Call upon my Valentine;
He'll wash away your sin.
He will be your Valentine;
And your dearest, dearest friend.
