REFLECTION: A FATHER'S HEART

A father could easily be discouraged by the example he has to live up to in our heavenly Father. Who can love so much that He would sacrifice His life for His children? Who can balance the spiritual, physical, and emotional fathering required to rear a child in a godly manner, especially in today's society? Only those who give their hearts completely to God. I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you, promises God in Ezekiel 36:26 (NIV). Fathers, rejoice! For if you give yourselves completely to the Father, He will give you His heart in return. Then you will truly be equipped for godly fathering. Fathers, give your hearts to Jesus – the hearts of your children and all you touch will follow! – Jennie Bishop

I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you. – Ezekiel 36:26 (NIV)

SUMMER'S SUNDAY SERMONS

Having completed our study of Luke's challenging narrative of the early church, this summer we plan to bask in the warm glow of God's character. Given the opportunity to express His nature through scripture, God seems to love to describe Himself as, "The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin."

Exploring these qualities will be our focus Sunday mornings.

SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL

We would like to give our dedicated Sunday School teachers a break this summer by having volunteers supervise the children as they either watch Christian children's videos or play in the nursery. There is a volunteer sign-up list at the back of the church. Please help support our teachers in this way.

FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

Lord, please bless our fathers, these men who mean so much to us, who are greatly responsible for who we are and who we are becoming,

Bless them for having the courage to do what's necessary to keep us out of trouble, for making us do the right thing, for helping us build our character, even when it makes us angry; and bless them for pushing us to do our best, even when they just want to love us.

Bless our fathers for being our protectors, for leading us through stormy times to safety, for making us believe that everything will be all right and for making it so.

Bless our fathers for quietly making a living to provide for those they love most, for giving us food, clothing, shelter and the other material things that really matter, for unselfishly investing time and money in us that they could have spent on themselves.

Bless our fathers, Lord, for saving some energy for fun, for leading us on adventures to explore the outer reaches of ourselves, for making us laugh, for being our playmates and our friends.

Bless them for being our secure foundation, our rock, for holding on tight to us ... until it's time to let us go.

Lord, bless these men we look up to, our role models, our heroes, our fathers. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
- Joanna Fuchs
